SOMBRERO WINS AT WORTH.

Those that journeyed to Worth yesterday had the pleasure of seeing Sombrero, Green B. Morris' crack colt, perform. He was entered in the fifth race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds, and was always held at odds-on in the betting. He won the race in easy fashion, Daly purposely drawing a close finish, but had there been any horse to the left of the rider that finished strongly Sombrero would probably have been beaten, as Daly looked only to the right at the fast closing Hoodwink in the final fifty yards.

Bragg, showing improvement, jumped into the lead at the start, closely pressed by Jaubert and Jack Demund, with Sombrero fourth within easy call. Going down the backstretch Jaubert fell away beaten and Jack Demund displaced Bragg in the lead. It appeared for a moment just before turning for home as if Jack Demund had a good chance to win, as he led by a half length, and Bragg began to show signs of distress. When well straightened for home, however, Daly brought Sombrero up fast and he passed into the lead just before the last eighth post had been reached. From here to the wire he always held the field safe, winning by a head from Hoodwink, which beat Bragg a length for second place. Hoodwink stood a long stretch drive with gameness and finished stoutly. Bragg rallied in the last sixteenth and finished going strongly. Caliban was bumped out of position at the first turn, losing several lengths. He was slow in making up the lost ground, but came through the stretch with a rush and was fast wearing down Bragg in the closing strides for third place. Jack Demund fell away badly beaten just after getting well straightened for home.

Fake proved to be the best in the first race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Ailyar was made an even money favorite, but ran a dull race and was beaten off at the end. Fake laid along in fifth position until well into the last quarter, where he moved up fast and, finishing strongly, beat Evelyn Byrd a neck, the latter finishing two lengths before Edinborough for second place. Evelyn Byrd finished stoutly, but the winner held her safe all through the last fifty yards. Edinborough showed a smart turn of speed, but tired noticeably when put to the pinch a furlong from home. Best Man made up much ground in the last quarter. Reina de Cuba was right there for five furlongs, but tired rapidly when the decisive action came. She bears watching from now on. Little Jack Horner, as usual, displayed early speed. Ailyar ceased to be a serious contender after the first quarter had been run.

Another close finish bobbed up in the second race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. Foxy Kane, the favorite, won by a head from Apple Sweet which beat My Surprise the same distance for second place. Dean probably was over confident on the winner and had to hustle him out at the end to stall off Apple Sweet's determined bid in the closing strides. My Surprise met with early entanglement and was got into his stride slowly but began to make up ground fast when entering the final quarter and finished fast under a powerful ride. Apple Sweet contested every foot of the journey with the winner. Gold Bride was right there all the way and ran a good race. She is due to win soon. Albemarle showed early speed but was well spent when the last sixteenth action came up.

The third race, a dash of seven and a half furlongs for four-year-olds and upward, went to Kenilworth, which showed a dash of his old form and ran an excellent race. He displayed much speed throughout, leading all the way and winning by a half length from La Goleta, which beat Automaton one for second place. La Goleta was bumped out of her stride at the start and was slow in getting into contending action, but in the run down the final quarter closed up ground rapidly and finished going fast. Kenilworth faltered for a moment in the last thirty yards, but rallied quickly and held La Goleta safe in the last few strides. Automaton ran a surprisingly good race, also suffering from interference at the start. Nitrate was badly outrun in the first six furlongs, but moved up fast in the last eighth and would have finished third in a few more strides. Major Dixon ceased to be a factor in the race after five furlongs had been run.

Gregor K. is certainly one of the best two-year-olds that has performed here this year over a heavy or slow track. He had little trouble in taking the fourth race, a six furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, winning by two lengths easily from Barca, which beat Americano two and a half for second place. Gregor K., always well up, was not called on until turning for home where he went to the front rapidly, winning as his rider pleased. Barca finished with a rush and ran an impressive race. Americano showed speed, but was well spent when the last eighth action came up and had all he could do to maintain third place from Laura F. M.

The last race of the day, a dash of one and one-eighth miles, went to the long overdue Barrack, which won under a good ride by Coburn by a half length from Chickadee, which beat Alaska a head for second place. Barrack finished fast and gamely and held the field safe all through the last sixteenth. Blessed Dancel had no chance from where she got off. Chickadee came with a splendid rush at the end, nipping Alaska on the post.

Although the weather was cool the sunshiny afternoon brought the usual large crowd out and speculation was brisk and lively. The track had dried out fast and in case of no rain today will be in good condition.

WILL NOT RELEASE HOLTMAN

Mr. Thomas H. Williams, President of the California Jockey Club, arrived in Chicago yesterday and will depart for New York this afternoon, his mission in the main being to further the interests of the coming winter racing at Ingleside and Oakland. Concerning a matter of local rumor he made the following statement last night:

"There have been persistent rumors afloat in California, and the San Francisco papers have given credence to them, to the effect that Mr. Holtman and I have disagreed as to terms. For that reason and for the purpose of setting Mr. Holtman right, I have asked him to start according to his contract on the opening day of the season's racing in California, which begins at Ingleside. The mayor has signed the ordinance, recently passed by the Board of Supervisors, and we shall race there until the end of the year, then we have forty days more to race there next year.

"Now, understand me clearly why I have selected Mr. Holtman to open the season. Mr. Dwyer is fastened up here on your local tracks until November 20th, and consequently I could not have him to open with did I so desire. I might release one starter. That is true, but suppose Mr. Holtman loses his form—they all do it—or gets sick, then where am I? Now I propose to have both starters on call, and for that reason Mr. Dwyer can start for Mr. Bush, and I am friendly to the New Orleans man until I need him, he being subject to a telegraph call from me for his services."

Mr. Williams declared that more new owners will visit California this season than ever before and intimated that he might have a budget of news when he passes through here on his way home from New York a week from Friday night.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Charlie Grainger showed improvement, was lucky throughout, came with a rush in the last furlong and won going away. Ezera was poorly ridden and stumbled at the end, but was an easy second. Annie Grace sustained her speed well and should win soon. Ray can beat this kind but was probably short and tired in the stretch, where he was pinned in next to the rail. Mac Ana closed a gap. Whisp had no chance at start and had clear sailing only in the last furlong where he finished fast.
Scratched—3562 Knight Templar, 107.

Went to post at 2:25. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Runnels broke slowly and was repeatedly shut off, being in next to the rail, but outstayed Lux Casta in a hard stretch drive. The latter, much improved, forced the pace throughout and held on gamely to the end. Merito closed a big gap from a bad start. St. Finnan was overweighted among this kind, but is in his best form. Kalif was outclassed at the weights.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. The stable pair was prominent from the start and drew clear when on the level stretch, Cinquevalli going away strongly. Wild Thyme was tiring at the end and was being rapidly overhauled by Fire Eater. The latter broke slowly as usual and closed up with a tremendous stretch rush. He was probably best and is steadily improving. Merry Acrobat ran poorly and is strictly a mud runner. Fleeting Venus went a fast half and quit. Rigodon had scant chance with his jockey. Examiner and Mackey Dwyer were out of place and want a longer route.

$750 and paid $1,000 to Lamasney Bros. for the two-year-old filly Begone, by Preston-pans—Avaunt. Ed Peters will also ship his horses to Worth from Fort Erie with the Curtis & Derrham consignment.

Automaton, N trate and The Don's entry will in future not be accepted until properly schooled to the barrier.

F. T. Wood's fast two-year-old, Stem Winder, is dangerously sick at the Worth track. Several horsemen think the colt is suffering from lung fever.

E. C. Hopper, the secretary of the Latonia Jockey Club, was a visitor at Worth yesterday. In speaking of the outlook for the coming meeting to be held at Latonia, he stated that the prospect never looked brighter and applications from horsemen for stable room are coming in so fast that there will be some trouble in taking care of all the applicants.

Jockey J. Daly, who rode Sombra, was censured by a number of horsemen for his indifferent ride on the Morris three-year-old. Daly brought his mount to the middle of the track on the turn into the stretch and appeared to be able to win by half a dozen lengths, but the rider took a steady pull on his mount when a furlong out and Sombra began shortening his stride with the result that Hoodwink, which was making a game effort, got to his saddle girths. Daly never made an effort in the last seventy yards on his mount, realizing of course that Hoodwink would not be able to overtake him. But while he was observing what was going on, on the outside he failed to notice Bragg coming with great speed next to the rail and had the latter gotten his second wind a little earlier he might have beaten the Morris crack.

BELLE MEADE.

"After more than sixty years, the famous Belle Meade breeding establishment is about to pass out of existence. Established in 1839 by W. G. Harding, it has grown from a small beginning to be one of the best known nurseries of the thoroughbred horse in America, and the get of its stallions have won thousands of dollars in this country and an equal number of English sovereigns," says a Nashville letter to the St. Louis Republic.

"In the early days were found here such horses as the mighty Priam, winner of the English Derby, and the imported stallions Eagle and Bluster, whose bones have long since been laid beneath the sturdy oaks. Here, too, the great Vandal, Jack Malone, Sir Richard, Highlander, Childe Harold, Bonnie Scotland, John Morgan, Enquirer, Great Tom, Tremont and Iroquois held court in their respective days. This was the home of the great gray mare Gamma, queen of the turf sixty years ago, and in the present generation the prestige of the breeding establishment was given new luster by the performances of Proctor Knott, Bramble, Clifford, Cayuga, Egmont, Getaway, Rancocas, G. W. Johnson, Helen Nichols, Inspector B., Uncle Bob, Tulla Blackburn, Tammany, Gotham, Maid Marian, Falsetto, Red Banner, and a score of others whose names are almost as famous.

"The winnings of the Belle Meade horses were fabulous. In one season Proctor Knott won $69,865; Tammany, $72,300; Inspector B., $38,375; Helen Nichols, $20,775; Bella B., $23,200; Uncle Bob, $20,860; G. W. Johnson, $16,000, and Egmont, $15,694.

"The list of stallions now standing at Belle Meade includes The Commoner, which General Jackson, the present owner of Belle Meade, purchased less than two years ago for $15,000, and for whom he not long ago refused an offer of $50,000; Inspector B., by Enquirer, dam Colossa, by Colossus, and the sire of a number of good winners, including the great Endurance by Right, who as a two-year-old last year, was considered by many shrewd horsemen to be the greatest animal in training. Then there is Loyalist, a full brother to Paradox, being by Sterling, out of Casuistry, by The Miner. Loyalist is the sire, among other good ones, of the brilliant Tissak, now one of W. C. Whitney's stallions.

"Grand old Luke Blackburn is there, too, but his success in the stud is too well known to need comment. Tithonus, by St. Simon, dam Immortelle, one of the most promising sires in the country, is also one of the Belle Meade stars, having sired such good ones as Emathion, Avoid, Memnon and Adine.

Madison is another sire whose success is already assured, and there are others of lesser fame, but great promise.

"From 1875 to 1890, inclusive, the sales of yearlings from Belle Meade aggregated $377,980 for 589 head, and while no records for the past eleven years are available at this moment, the average of the preceding fifteen years has been more than maintained.

"The present owner of Belle Meade is General W. H. Jackson, son-in-law of General W. G. Harding. He had been the manager of the place many years prior to General Harding's death, and when that event occurred, in 1886, Jackson came into full possession, and began those extensive additions to the stud that have made Belle Meade what it is to-day—the leading thoroughbred breeding establishment of America.

"Jackson is a graduate of West Point. At the outbreak of the civil war he joined the confederacy and fought through the war. After the war he married Miss Selene Harding, settled down at Belle Meade, where he has since remained, accumulating wealth, and the Belle Meade of today is a monument to his skill and executive ability. Sickness and the cares of extensive business concerns have made it imperative that he should lay down some of the burdens that sat so lightly upon him in the past, and so Belle Meade goes under the hammer.

"General Jackson treasures as one of the interesting periods of his life the memory of his career of five years spent on the western frontier, and his reminiscences of these thrilling years he was located in New Mexico and Colorado, and much of the time he was engaged in actual hostilities with the Comanches, Kiowas, Apaches and expeditions. General Jackson was accompanied by 'Kit' Carson and the noted French guide, La Rue.

"Some years ago Theodore Roosevelt, now President Roosevelt, paid the general a visit, and on this occasion many were the interesting western stories related. General Jackson and Mr. Roosevelt organized, in New York, the Boone and Crockett Club, a social organization, whose membership is composed of about 100 members. A prerequisite to membership is that the applicant must have killed as many as three specimens of the large game of America.

"In 1805 an old Virginian, John Harding, came to this section, and his foresight led him to settle on the banks of Richland creek and possess the land of Belle Meade as his home. He was a good business man and acquired something like 7,000 acres of land. This he called Belle Meade. He built on the estate a cedar log cabin, and in a semicircle around it were his negro quarters, for he owned many slaves. In front of the cabins he built a turnpike road, over which was hauled the wood used for the quarters. The last vestige of this road was removed only two years ago by General Jackson. The cabins of the slaves have all been torn away, but the mansion house, or rather the cabin of the master, still stands as a link between the past and present Belle Meade. This cabin is now occupied by Uncle Bob, one of General Harding's old slaves, who has been identified with the estate for nearly a century. In this cabin was born Gen. William G. Harding, the real founder of Belle Meade Stud.

"When John Harding was 70 years old, his children all grown, his wife dead, he thought the population was crowding him, and he removed to the wilds of Arkansas, where he acquired a large tract of land, for which he later refused $150,000. This was in 1819, and when the old man left he turned Belle Meade over to his son, William G. Harding, who at once established the now famous thoroughbred stud.

"Before Belle Meade found its way into the hands of General Harding it contained little blooded stock. John Harding owned, while he lived on the estate, several well-bred horses, but it did not properly become a stock farm in the true meaning of the term until it passed into the hands of the younger man.

"When President Cleveland and his bride visited Nashville in the fall of 1893, it was at Belle Meade that they were domiciled, and within its walls learned much of the life and the aspirations of the southern people. Mr. Roosevelt, long before he was president, was a guest at the historic mansion. "Years ago, before Roosevelt became a national figure, General Jackson spoke of him as a man of grit and promise. It is said Mr. Cleveland often refers to his stay at Belle Meade, short though it was. He and Mrs. Cleveland saw a deer drive, and were charmed with the quietude and freedom of the place, and the sincere and genuine hospitality of their hosts."

Our other two good things which we will name in our three horse wire will be from 3 to 8 to 1. We are sublimely confident that they will win.

Our three-horse wire has proven an enormous success. It has made a great hit, because—

1st. It gives only three good things daily.

2d. You are not trying to beat the card—you play your horses, pocket your winnings and quit for the day.

3d. It requires less capital and there is no chance of getting a string of losers.

4th. Cashing on two and sometimes three races a day is an easy matter on this plan. Think this over. It will appeal to your good judgment.

AT LATONIA.

While there are plenty of race horses stabled at Latonia waiting for the fall meeting, it is the baby racers that are attracting the most attention. Captain W. H. May & Son have half a dozen and Jake Marklein has a dozen quartered in the big yearling barn. Both have some very well-made and royally bred youngsters, and if they do not turn out to be good race horses then all signs fail. Both the owners will give the youngsters the usual quarter-mile try-out in the near future. Then they will know more about their relative abilities. Still, mistakes are often made, and, as a result, a good colt is left with no stake engagements.

Captain May is very sweet on several of his youngsters. The Top Gallant is his favorite, while his son "Bub" is sweet on the Ben Strome. The Albert colt is a bay, and an unusually large one. The Wagner filly may prove to be another Coal Black Lady.

Both the Marklein and May yearlings were down for trials last Sunday, but the track was not in good shape and the weather was too raw and cool.

A week from next Saturday the Latonia track will open its gates for the fall meeting. It will continue until November 22, and this will make twenty-five racing days. A number of horses are at the track, some resting after a long campaign and others that are just being taken up for the fall and winter racing.

Secretary Hopper has received assurances that some of the best stables in the west and some good ones from the east will take part in the sport at fair Latonia.

—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It was announced at the Morris Park track Monday, on the authority of Matt Allen, who will train for Messrs. J. R. and F. P. Keene in England next season, that about fourteen yearlings and two-year-olds will be shipped to England on the Minnehaha, which leaves New York on Saturday, October 25, for London, whence they will be sent to Newmarket. Allen is also authority for the statement that Lucien Lyne has been secured by Messrs. J. R. and F. P. Keene at a salary of $20,000 per annum to ride in England or in America, as his employers might elect. There is hardly a doubt that Lyne will be asked to ride in England. He will, of course, continue to ride in this country for the remainder of this season. The salary paid to Lyne is one of the highest ever offered as a retainer to a jockey on this side of the water.

Next Saturday will be a great racing day at Morris Park, the features being of an exceeding attractive order. The October Steeplechase Handicap at about two miles and a half is the first race of importance that day. H. S. Page's Self Protection, who won the Champion Steeplechase on Saturday, will surely go to the post and Mr. Page will have the mount. Mr. Chamblat will probably start Adjudamento and Scotch Bush, with Rowdy and Seminole representing F. Ambrose Clark. Other probable starters are W. C. Hayes' Cock Robin, Henry Lang's Philma Paxton, T. W. Lawson's Filon d'Or, P. Meaney's Inspector Stevens, G. Schwarz's Judge Phillips, Joseph E. Widener's Fulminate, Miss Mitchell and E. phone.

The Thirty-sixth Champagne Stakes for two-year-olds, which will be worth about $10,000 in gross, will also be run on Saturday over seven furlongs on the Withers course. If all of the crack youngsters start there will be a race worth double the usual price of admission. F. R. Hitchcock's Grey Friar may have another chance to defeat not only Whitney & Duryea's Acefull, who was trimmed by him in the Matron Stakes, but also Irish Lad from the same stable. According to the conditions of the stake there are no winning penalties, but there are allowances of from five to fifteen pounds. Acefull and Irish Lad would each pick up $122 pounds, while Grey Friar would have an advantage of a three-pound gelding allowance. In addition to these three stars, the Messrs. Keene can start Dalesman, Duster, Clarion, Flying Prince, Gimcrack, Whitechapel, Palmist, Big Ben and Sir Launcelot, if they care to do so. Mrs. L. Curtin

Eugenia Burch, the fleet Ben Strome filly which triumphed in both the second part of the Matron Stakes and the Nursery Handicap, will get in with 119 pounds, a weight she has successfully carried on several occasions. John A. Drake's High Chancellor, which has not been seen since the Saratoga meeting, is another dangerous factor. So is J. E. Madden's Yardarm, if he starts. Then we have Hurstbourne, Merry Acrobat, W. C. Whitney's Judith Campbell, August Belmont's Mizzen, Lord of the Vale and Flying Jib, S. S. Brown's Blue Ribbon and others of equal prowess. As the Champagne Stakes will not be run down the Eclipse course, but on the Withers course, the struggle will be in full view of the spectators from start to finish, thereby increasing the interest twofold.

The third feature for Saturday will be the Municipal Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and three-quarter miles over the hill, which will give the lovers of long-distance racing a chance to be in their element. Carruthers & Shields' great horse Advance Guard, will start. He is in fine shape just now and this distance will be exactly to his liking. It is probable that Blues will go, together with Surnise and Sun Shower. Then, too, it will not be at all surprising to see Baron Pepper, Articulate, Rannels, Herbert, Douro, Hunter Raine, Oom Paul, Maid of Harlem, Tom Kenny and perhaps Colonel Bill go to the post, a field that should provide a sensational event and a fitting wind-up for the week.

Of all the western horsemen who invaded the east this year Henry Ziegler has undoubtedly had the most signal success. Hermis, now the idol of the eastern turf, is the one that has done much to bring the Ziegler stable into prominence. Hermis, however, was not alone responsible for its popularity, for, with one or two exceptions, every horse that was taken east this season in the string owned by Charles Hughes has been a winner. This is equally true of those that were sold, including such horses as Irene Lindsey, Ravensbury and Mr. Dingle. Hermis is undoubtedly the horse of the year, and in discussing his victory Monday in a race in which he gave away chunks of weight to every other starter, Mr. Ziegler said:

"He is a great colt, and prominent horsemen have told me that I sold him too cheap. He is worth today perhaps twice as much as I got for him, but I set a price and it was accepted. He has won in stakes alone what he cost Mr. Bell, and he will doubtless be a great handicap horse next year. I only hope that it may be my fortune to have another as good some of these days."

INGLESIDE ORDINANCE SIGNED.

Mayor Schmitz signed the Ingleside racing bill Monday afternoon, and after the adjournment of the Board of Supervisors he issued the following statement of his position: "I have carefully considered the so-called Ingleside ordinance, and, after weighing every suggestion, both for and against the proposition, have concluded to sign the bill.

"I am not in favor of making San Francisco a wide-open town; neither, on the other hand, do I believe in putting her in a straight jacket.

"I am satisfied that the toleration of horse racing in San Francisco for forty days in the year will not seriously jeopardize or endanger the morals of the community, while, at the same time, it is a concession to the sport-loving, amusement people of the city, a large number of whom enjoy racing and occasionally attend the sport without joining or in any way participating in the betting, which is seemingly the world over an indispensable incident of all race courses.

"With racing now permitted all the year round at Oakland and just across our boundary line in San Mateo, now patronized by and easily accessible to the people of San Francisco, I can see no distinct advantage in keeping the San Francisco track closed, either morally or materially."

Ingleside track is located on the outskirts of the city and easily accessible by electric cars. It is the best equipped and most attractive track in the state and its reopening will do much to boom the sport.

Reina de Cuba was right there for five furlongs, but faltered in the last sixteenth struggle. Alyar showed a little early speed, but fell away badly beaten when turning for home. He can do much better.

Winner—Ch. c. by Ononadaga—Patty of Cork (trained by G. W. Poole).

Went to post at 2:45. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Foxy Kane showed his usual turn of speed and displayed much gameness in the last sixteenth struggle, standing off Apple Sweet's determined bid gamely. The latter ran a good race and would probably have won with a stronger ride. My Surprise met with early entanglement but made up ground fast when turning for home after swinging wide. He finished strongly under a good ride. Gold Bride tired slightly when the pinch came. Rankin made up ground fast in the last quarter. Albemarle, as usual, showed some early speed. Clivoso ran well for a half mile.

Scratched—(34708) Will Shelly, 168; 35616 Impetuous, 101.

La Goleta began slowly, but made up ground fast in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Automaton showed speed, but tired slightly in the closing strides. Nitrate made up ground fast in the last quarter and would have been third in another stride or two. Major Dixon fell away badly beaten after five furlongs had been run.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Gregor K. was not called on until straightened for home, where he left the field with ease and won as his rider pleased. Barca finished strongly and was much the best of the others. Americano showed speed, but tired fast when the last eighth struggle came up. Laura F. M. ran well for five and a half furlongs. The Don acted badly at the post and besides got away flatfooted. Prince of Endurance was well spent when a furlong out, after showing much speed up to that point.

Sombrero was not called on until entering the last quarter where he went to the front in a stride, but Daly purposefully drew a close finish. Hoodwink ran a surprisingly good race. up fast when turning for home and finished strongly under a vigorous ride. Chickadee came with a rush at the end after making up much ground in the last quarter. gamely. The Boer came fast around the turn, but tired at the end. Tros had to run around his horses

Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Kilogram was outrun and under a drive almost throughout, but under a powerful ride gamely wore the pacemaker down in the stretch. Major Mansir closed up with a rush after trailing the field to the stretch and is rounding to. Boaster, at a great disadvantage in making the pace, should have won, but was outsprinted in the last quarter. Past, badly handled after a rough trip, was gaining on the leaders at the end. Martin Burke made his best showing thus far of his eastern career, finishing very strongly.

Winner—B. c. by Longstreet—Chertreuse (trained by H. Wehmhoff).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Hunter Raine, lucky and well ridden, put up a remarkable game race and finished in regular bull dog fashion. Andy Williams, also lucky throughout and skillfully handled, finished strongly and was going fastest of all at the end. Circus, away badly, was turned loose and shipped into a prominent position in the first half, and in spite of a poor ride he outstayed the others and was a good horse at the end. Tom Kenny injudiciously forced the pace, which on the hill course is generally suicidal. Star of the West was not good enough. Bar le Duc trailed and was close up at the finish. Colonel Bill, choked and hauled all over the track in the first mile, was lost in the struggle in the down hill drive. Throw out his race here.

stoutly. Allhallowmas began slowly and was outrun in the first part of the race, but closed a big gap in the stretch and just managed to get third place from Oro Viva. The latter tired in the run home from chasing Eddie T.
